DE LA BARRA TALKS ON MEXICAN UNION

Says Intervention Would be Risky Move For United States.

SERIOUS PROBLEMS.

Former Governor Ridicules Suggestion That Lind Will be Treated Discourteously.

New York, Aug. 9.—Intervention in any form would be fraught with serious consequences to American interests and would serve only to unite all Mexican fections in resentment to ward the would-be considered and unwarranted affront to the dignity and honor of their country, according to Francisco Leon de la Barra, who has arrived here on his way to France, where he is to represent the Huerta government.

Senor de la Barra, who was provisional president of Mexico after the fall of Diaz and who has had much experience in diplomatic posts of one kind or another, including several years, residence in the United States, left no doubt in the minds of those who talked with him that President Wilson's determination not to recognize Huerta is believed by him to be the only obstacle in the way of peace and constitutional government in Mexico. He declared that internad disputes ought not to obscure the fact that throughout Mexico there is a fervor of national patriotism that can alwas be relied upon in the vent of trouble from the outside.

As for the mission of John Lind, he belittled the suggestion that the agent of the President of the United States would be treated with anything but courtesy. He believed he would be well received, but he declined to discuss the matter further, pleading that this turn to affairs had been given since he left Mexico. He asserted that any American citizen is safe in any part of the country controlled by the government at this time."

"Mexico has two serious problems just now," said the ambassador. "One is internal and the other external. So far as the former is concerned, I believe conditions are improving. The government's military program is in a fair way to be carried out. Railroad communication is firmly established throughout the country and that is an indication of stability."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Dreaming that he was a Coney Island acrobat, Howard O'Brien, a 12-year-old boy, walked out of the window of his second-story bedroom at 711 East 107th street, New York, yesterday morning and fell to the cement pavement in the areaway 20 feet below. He was picked up unconscious and hurried to the Harlem Hospital, where it was found that he hal sustained internal injuries. After recovering consciousness the boy told the physicians that his mishap was due to a rather exciting time which he had at Coney Island Thursday night. "The acrobats got my goat," he said. "They were so wonderful that I thought of them all the way home. When I went to bed I dreamed that I was one of them, and that I was doing a high dive. That's the last thing I remember."

A bold attempt to rob the office of the Columbia Loan Company, at 613 F St., northwest, Washington, at noon yesterday, was frustrated by the bravery of Miss Katharine O'Connor, the young woman cashier, who closed the cash drawer and screamed as a pistol was poined at her. Fearful that the girl's outcry had bene heard by person's in other offices in the building and outside, the bandit hurriedly departed, disappearing long before a chase could be started.

Clare Bosken, the divorced wife of Patrolman Peter Schaller, who was shot and killed in a lonely residential section of Cincinnati Thursday night, was formerly charged with murder. In a statement to the police, the Bosken woman claimed that she married Bosken ten years ago, was divorced several months later and that since that time he had been continually annoying and threatening her. Schaller claimed that he had arranged an appointment with her Thursday night with a view of inducing her to remarry him. The formal charge followed a statement made by Miss Bosken while she was in a hysterical condition. She said: "I shot him. He made a fool of me for ten years."

Jealousy, not a clash of Japanese clans—was responsible, the police believe, for the murder in Salem's Chinatown Thursday night of three Japanese in Salem, Oregon. Tami Koda, wife of a restaurant proprietor, her bsby, and Koyo Kowowa, a cook, were the victims. Y. Koda, the woman's husband, and Joe Matsura, a saloon porter, are in custody pending an investigation. A huge butcher knife and a revolver were used by the slayer or slayers. The child's head was almost severed. First reports of the tragedy indicated that the three had been killed in a riot.

The $50,000,000 of Federal fund about to be deposited in the National banks of the West and South to assist in moving the crops will be increased to $150,000,000 if necessary. The desire of the government to mobolize all the needed cash in the public treasury in the agricultural belts of the country to avert the money stringency characteristic of the cropmovig period was communicated yesterday to bankers of the Central West at a conference with Secretary McAdoo and Assistant Secretary John Skelton Williams, called by the Treasury Department to make arrangements for the distribution of the big sum.

Dr. Oliver Livingston Jones father of "Gen." Rosalie Jones, the suffragist, who lead the "hikers" to Albany and Washington, attempted suicide in his home in New York yesterday. He shot himself once through the head and was removed to the Polytechnic Hospital, where it is said he will probably die.

Miss Edith Rockey, of Quarryville, Pa., near Lancaster, and Wm. Lewis, colored, of Washington, D. C., were drowned while bathing off States Avenue, Atlantic City, N. J., yesterday, before the life guards went on duty. It was the girl's first ocean plunge she having gone with a merry party from her hotel. She went down in sight of 500 people, nearly all of whom were men. Because of the roughness they were afraid to venture into the breakers, and it was not until Rufus Bradley, colored, appeared on the scene that an attempt at rescue was made. Bradley was pulled out of the water almost unconscious. Lewis, who was a hotel employe, was bathing alone, and drowned while the attention of the crowd was centered on the struggling girl.

HUERTA IS WARNED BY UNITED STATES

Should Lind be Harmed Mexice Will Be held Responsible.

MUST BE PROTECTED.

Unofficial Commissioner on Peace Mission Must Not Meet With Affront from Sister Republic.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessey has served notice on the Huerta government that its attacks on Lind and his mission are an affront to a peaceful sister nation. And he has made it very plain to the Mexican Foreign office that, while it can do as it pleases so far as accepting the plan Mr. Lind comes to communicate, it will be held responsible for any affront to the man who comes as an attache of the embassy bearing the unofficial commission of representative of the President of the United States.

Administration officials who have been dealing with the Mexican situation, to realize this morning that they are sitting on the edge of a volcano which may explode at any minute. The next few hours will decide much. The suspense is tightly drawn.

The storm center hovers over John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative and "adviser" to the American embassy in Mexico. Lind is but a few miles away from Mexican soil on board the battleship New Hampshire. He reaches Very Cruz in a few hours.

In his defiance of this country, Huerta has classed the President's messenger as an "undesirable" even before the purpose of his mission is known. His bold attitude has inflamed his subjects. Harm may come to Lind, and harm to Lind would probable mean war.

Making no attempt to hide their anxiety, members of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations are in secret session today. The purpose of the meeting is carefully guarded. President Wilson is keeping in touch with the latest code advices from the Mexican capital. Secretary Bryan, has, for the present, at least, abandoned all thought of his Chautauqua lectures.

PRETTY WEDDING.

One of the quietest weddings and yet one of interest to his many friends, was that of Mr. Henry L. Cheshire, of this city, to Miss Elizabeth N. Butler, of Fairfax county, Thursday night, Rev. Harrison, of Lincolnia, Va., officiated. A great many friends of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony, which took place at the home of the bride. Mr. Cheshire is a popular business man of this city, and the bride is deservedly popular in Fairfax. The bride and groom amid a shower of rice left for a trip to Canada.

JAIL IS COMFORTABLE.

Alexandria County Institution Praised For Sanitary Condition.

Any violator of the law in Alexandria county would be foolish to choose a fine in preference to a vacation at the county jail, according to the nice things said about that institution in the recent report of the board of supervisors to the state authorities. According to the report, all the law in regard to the jail is complied with, Jailor Harry Johnson having done everything required of him to make the stay of guests at the hostelry, which has come to be known as "Johnson's Hotel," as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

The building is described as being in a first class state of repair, improvements recommended in a previous report of the supervisors having been completed. The cells were found to be in a clean and sanitary condition; with ample conveniences for the prisoners. An electric lighting system which enables the jailor to flood the whole building with light by the turning of a single switch, and adequate bathing, toilet, and sleeping facilities are among the recent improvements mentioned.

This sets a record price for King street property in that section. Mr. Hopkins intends to erect another story and otherwise improve the building sometime this year.

CASE CONTINUED.

Washington Loan Broker Before Commissioner Garnett.

George D. Horning, a Washington loan broker, who erected an office in Alexandria county at the south end of the highway bridge, was brought before United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett in this city yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock charged with placing dirt on government reservation. He was represented by Crandall Mackey, of Alexandria county, and a hearing was set for next Friday afternoon. Horning's office is built on stilts on the side of the government road with which he is connected by a platform by permission of the Secretary of War.

POLLARD STILL LEADS WILLIAMS

MAY HAVE A CONTEST.

Danville Committee Orders Recount at Request of Pollard Men—No Call to Committee.

Richmond, Aug. 9.—Pollard's friends now claim a plurality of 1,858 for him. There will be a contest in Portsmouth and a recount in Danville.

Staunton, Va., Aug. 9.—Senator Edward Echols, temporary chairman of the State Democratic Committee, says he has no idea when the committee will be called together to canvas the returns from the recent state primary, but not until all the returns have been received, and that may take two or three weeks. A complication has arisen which may cause some delay. The law requires the returns to be made by the election judges to the State chairman, but most of the judges seem to be making reports to the several local committees which then make them to the central committee. The acting chairman indicates that he does not intend to be hurried into hasty action, but he will proceed with due deliberation. As soon as the returns are all in, he will make the call for the meeting of the committee.

NO FREE DELIVERY OR COLLECTION

Interstate Commerce Commission Refuses to Suspend Action.

MERCHANTS LOSERS.

Railroads Free to Act at Pleasure in Matter, and Drayage is to be Stopped at Once.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Free store door collection and delivery of freight in Washington is to be withdrawn September 1.

The Interstate Commerce Commission today served notice upon the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants' Association that it would not suspend the Baltimore and Ohio, and Pennsylvania railroad tariffs withdrawing this service.

This action ends the fourth round of the free delivery freight with the merchants of Washington and Baltimore having decidedly the worst of it. Notices similar to those served on Washington commercial organizations were also served on the Baltimore organizations.

Both cities will lose the delivery for a time at least, as the commission's decision ends present proceedings in the matter. New complaints can be filed, but it will be a matter of months before these are fully heard an da decision is reached. Consequently the last hope for continuance of this service that has been given for approximatelyy a quarter of a century, is lost to the merchants and business men.

The refusal of the commission to suspend the tariffs, is tantamount to the refusal of a court to grant an injunction. The railroads are now free to act at will in the matter and drayage is to be stopped.

PARCELS POST STAMPS.

On orders from the postmaster general, all postoffices may now sell parcels post stamps for use on ordinary mail. The ordinary postage stamps may likewise be used as postage on parcels post packages. It being the intention of the post office department to get rid of all parcels post stamps as rapidly as possible as no more will be printed. Ordinary postage stamps may also be used on special delivery letters. It is no longer necessary to purchase the special delivery stamps, the printing of which will very likely be discontinued, the regular postage stamp having taken their place.

ACCUSED OF THEFT OF BUGGY.

Arrested in Leesburg When He Offers to Sell Horse and Vehicle.

John Dugan, liveryman at 33rd and M Strets, Washington, called upon the police yesterday to recover a fine horse and buggy he had rented to a young man on Thursday for a drive with a woman to Glen Echo.

The police immediately communicated with the sheriffs and county officials throughout Maryland and Virginia, so, when a young man, giving his name as John P. Smith, offered to sell to J. D. Lambert, Jr., in Leesburg, Va., yesterday, a good team at a cheap price, Sheriff Edwards, of Loudoun county, was called in. He arrested Smith. Detective Embrey went to Leesburg during the afternoon and brought the prisoner back to the city. When arrested Smith had a revolver in his pocket.

Smith is but a boy, wears fine clothes, and seems to be well educated. He claims Washington as his home, but refuses to give the street address. The police do not believe his name is Smith.

ALEXANDRIA HOSPITAL

July Record Breaking Month For the Institution--Report of Operations

July was a record-breaking month for Alexandria Hospital. The following is a summary of work done from July 1, to 31.

Number of patients in hospital July 1, ...14
Number of patients admitted during the month 57
Number new dispensary cases .. 7
Number of old cases whose treatment was continued 2
Total number of cases treated during month 80
Number of infants born 6
Surgical operations performed:
Major 10
Minor .....4—14
Number of patients remaining hospital July 31 24

Of the 57 patients admitted during the month 21 were free cases.

Number of days of gratuitous nursing and hospital treatment given these patients, 138.

The hospital had just undergone general repair when the storm came and demolished things generally. Windows were broken, shutters were torn off, chimney blown down, and a part of the house unroofed, which caused the flooding of one wing of the building. The private rooms were all occupied at the time of the hurricane and most of the ward beds were full, but the patients stood the strain of the storm well and no one was injured or suffered much shock. Only one patient was brought into the hospital as a result of the storm. A colored man, upon whom a telephone pole fell, was brought in with a badly broken leg. It was fortunate there were not more casualties in the city—the hospital being well filled, it would have been difficult to handle more patients at that time.

The utmost capacity of Alexandria Hospital is 36 beds. One ward being set apart for colored men, one for colored women,and one ward of small beds for children. The hospital may be taxed to its utmost for adult white patients and only contain twenty to twenty-four patients, as beds in the colored wards, men's or women's wards or children's cots may not be utilized for such patients as may wish to enter.

The typhoid season has begun and promises to be a serious proposition. There are now six typhoid cases in the hospital. Among them a man and his wife, and a mother and her ten year old son. Fearing a typhoid epidemic the hospital management has had the entire nursing force vaccinated against typhoid.

The hospital management would be glad if the public would keep the institution in mind and lend a helping hand in caring for those who cannot help themselves. There are many to whom typhoid fever not only means sickness pain and danger to life but also long weeks of enforced illness in which the salary or small wages must stop when family expenses is greatest. Those who can barely provide for a family in health have a dark outlook when sickness comes. So we would ask that those who are blessed with health and means remember those less favored and remember that:

"What is thy brother's lot today,
May be thine own tomorrow."

COURTHOUSE REPAIRED

S. M. Dodd Took Ten Weeks to Renovate and Strengthen Old Building

For a total expediture of f$2,117.-68, including the cost of all labor and materials, the Alexandria county court house building has been converted from a condition of disorder and delapidation described by several local builders as unsafe for the transaction of the public business, to one of neatness an dapparent safey. S. M. Dodd, a builder of West Cherrydale, under whose supervision all the work was done, completed it in about ten weeks.

The repairs were not let under contract, but were down by day labor, Dodd submitted a detailed writen report of the progress of the work at each meeting of the board of supervisors, which body paid his vouchers and recompensed him for his labor and that of the men working under him.

Strengthening several of the walls with tie rods, bracing the gables in the attic, and repairing the slate roof, constitute the most substantial improvements. New flooring and dashboards were placed in the offices of Clerk Rucker, Commissioner of Revenue Duncan, Surveyor Crocker, and Treasurer Ball, and in the recording room and the courtroom on the second floor. Defects in the plaster have been patched up and the outside trim given a coat of paint. The gas piping, which is outside the walls, due to its installation after the building was constructed, was removed during the repairs to prevent its being injured, and has been replaced.

The rail in the board of supervisors' room, which has borne the brunt of much pounding of fists during heated arguments and against which has rested many a pair of feet during less exciting moments, has been braced with iron suports, and is now sufficiently strong to shield the supervisors from all manner of attacks.

The south room on the second floor, formerly occupied by the commonwealth's attorney, has been converted into a toilet and rest room for ladies. It has been neatly painted and will be furnished with couches and other conveniences. Toilet facilities for men on both floors have also been made more sanitary and otherwise improved.

DID NOT OPEN PROPOSALS.

The committee on streets of the City Council have not opened the proposals for asphalt, sand, Portland cement, granite curb and vitrified brick, and for hauling materials and hire of teams or the paving of Payne street from Queen street to Cameron street, also for similar material and work for the paving of Alfred street from Queen street to Princess street, and for the paving of Fairfax street from Duke to Wilkes street. The bids were to have been opened today, but the committee will meet Monday night, when they will be opened.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Latham, Sr., have gone to their summer home, Hickory Grove, North Mt. Vernon.

ENABLING ACT.

easure May Be Disposed of During First Week of Legislature.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 9.—If possible, he enabling act will be disposed of uring the first week of the session the Virginia legislature next win_ r, according to a statement made y Senator Saxon W. Holt, of New- ort News, chairman of the commit- e on privileges and elections in the pper house of that body.

Senator Holt anticipates full co-op- ration in this plan on the part of the ouse of Delegates, so that the way ay be cleared for the tax bill and ther measures of moment. He also as the assurance from Secretary Mc- lister, of the Anti-Saloon League, hat that organization is in hearty ympathy with the plan.

"We have never delayed in bring- ng the act to a vote," said Dr. Mc- lister, "and do not intend to do so ow. In the past it has always been he Anti-Saloon League which has een on the offensive and we expect o continue in that position. Any move nade by Senator Holt leading to an arly appearance of the act before the egislature will not be objectionable o us."

Discussing the probable effect of he result of the present primary bill Dr. McAllister said that the increased majority in the House clearly indi- ates that Virginia is a dry state and e believes the senate will be very eluctant to reject the bill in the face f such widespread sentiment in fa- or of it.

It is also Senator Holt's declared urpose to introduce a resolution as oon as practicable after the legisla- ure convenes, calling for the appoint- ment of a joint committe of five from ach body to act in conjunction with he auditor in declaring a tax meas- ure.

Though he fears this measure will ardly be enacted into law at the orthcoming session, Senator Holt eels confident that sufficient head- way will be made to insure its early nactment at the following session. The joint committee will be expected o devote its entire time to the tax ill and will, therefore, be relieved f all other duties, if the resolution oes through.

REV. G. C. RICHMOND.

Militant Preacher is Visitor at Virginia Capital.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 9.—The Rev. George Chalmers Richmond, the Episcopal clergyman of Philadelphia, whose recent denunciation of Episcopal Bishops in New York and Pennsylvania attracted wide notice, was a visitor in this city Thursday, though while here he managed to dodge newspaper men and publicity in general.

The cause of his visit is unknown. He called at the Governor's office during the course of his visit, but as Governor Mann was not in, he was shown through the capitol, inquired about visiting the penitentiary, and went to that institution. A deputy warden passed him as a regular visitor and he was shown through the institution in the customary manner. He stated while here he was interested in matters of a sociologic nature and visited persons whenever the opportunity presented itself.

According to Philadelphia dispatches, the militant clergyman will deliver a more biting denunciation than he has yet done next Sunday.

NEGROES ELECTROCUTED.

Attacked Seven-Year-Old Girl in Fairfax County.

Richmond, Aug. 9.—Benjamin Bailey, aged thirty, a Fairfax county man, went to his death in the State penitentiary, yesterday. "The usual crime" led to the man's execution.

Several months ago a little white girl of seven years was attacked by a negro and badly and horribly treated. The man made his escape for a short while, but was soon captured and taken before the child for identification. The identification was complete in every way, and the man was duly indicted, tried and convicted.

William Glinn, of Norfolk, a negro, was executed for the crime of murder last Wednesday.

PAINTER BREAKS HIS BACK.

Drops Fifty Feet When Scaffolding on Warehouse Breaks.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 9.—John Wilbur Stakes, a sign painter, living at 809 Harrington Avenue, died at St. Vincent Hospital about 6:45 Thursday night from injuries received when he was thrown 50 feet to the ground by the breaking of the scaffold on which he and another painter named Lester were working at the warehouse of the Norfolk Grain and Feed Company. Martin's lane and Upton St.

Lester escaped injury by hanging to the sill of an open window on the third floor, about five feet below the scaffold. He later climbed to the window and was dazed and badly frightened when discovered several minutes later by employes of the company.

Stakes and Lester were on the scaffold suspended about five feet below the roof, painting a sign on the side of the building which has bene leased by the Old Dominion Peanut Company. Without warning the flooring and ladder which supported the scaffold snapped, throwing Stakes to the ground a distance of about fifty feet. He struck on his back, breaking it, fracturinfg his skull and leg, and sustaiing internal injuries.

The negro seized a musket, and when Keys advanced on him he fired. The entire load entered Keys' stomach, and he died a few minutes afterward. Fields was placed in the county jail pending trial on Monday.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

CONDITION OF THE COUNTY.

The Alexandria County Monitor in an editorial today declares that it was "unfortunate in using the word bankruptcy in describing a recent issue of Alexandria county's financial condition." We are glad to know that simply the use of the word was unfortunate, as we have always contended that Alexandria county was not half so black as it is painted by its two newspapers.

We agree with the Monitor that the county's resources are almost unlimited, in comparison to other communities of the same size and character in the state. It has within its borders taxable property, which if assessed equitably would,with both a low assessment and a low tax rate, yield sufficient revenue into the county treasury to provide for all manner of public improvements and leave a balance on hand.

The Monitor says:

"But those resources for the present are beyond our reach. They are made unproductive by an assessment which values lands lying side by side at $50 an acre, when held by a real estate speculator; and at $500 an acre when held by the builder of a home. However wealthy an individual or a community may be in potential riches, he is in temporary bankruptcy, if those riches are not available to meet his obligations."

LIMITED FACILITIES OF THE HOSPITAL.

By a reference to the July report of the Alexandria Hospital it will be seen that the limited facilities provided and the lack of room and beds for a hospital to care for the sick in a city the size of Alexandria are entirely inadequate, in the event of an epidemic or during any unusual period in which disease may be prevalent.

In all large cities it is usual to provide hospital facilities, so that there will be one bed for every 100 inhabitants.

Alexandria with 16,000 inhabitants provies but 36 bes, an average of 444 persons to one bed in the hospital and when it is taken into consideration that the Alexandria Hospital receives and cares for the majority of cases in Fairfax and Alexandria county, with their growing populations, it can be easily figured out that the proportion of beds in the institution in this city is entirely inadequate to meet the demands upon it.

GOVERNOR SULZER FACING TROUBLE.

The impeachment proceedings which seem certain to be instituted against Governor Sulzer, of New York, will form another sad chapter in the political annals of the United States. It is the same old story—the desire to get rich by venturing in the uncertain stock market. According to statements published this morning, the Governor is confronted with serious charges which he may succesfully controvert, but the aspersion which has been cast upon him will not be eradicated with whitewash during his mundane existence. Few men in public life have been so greatly admired as has Sulzer, but the trouble in which he finds himself seems to have been of his own making. It was so with a number of prominent men in the early seventies when the credit mobilier bomb was exploded in Congress. A fragment struck the chair of the then vice-president and the effect of the shock followed the latter to the grave.

The tattooed man, the late James G. Blaine, was lampooned with the greatest energy by his political enemies while opposing Grover Cleveland for the presidency in 1884, and the cartoons of that day played no little part in causing his rejection by a majority of the people of the country.

Not all who enter the political field can be charged with questionable actions, but unfortunately many emerge with tarnished skirts, and the entire profession is held responsible for their acts.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES OUSTED.

Geo. W. Zachary Among Those Who Were Not Re-Elected.

As the result of the antagonism of Crandall Mackey, Commonwealth's Attorney, three of the school trustees of Alexandria county have been ousted despite Superintenednt Hodges' desire to retain them. The members who fell under the political ax are B. G. Foster, of Washington district, George W. Zachary of Jefferson district, and Dr. Charles B. Munson, of Arlington district. George W. Zachary is the tiler of Alexandria-Washington Lodge in this city.

The terms of the first two expired this year, and both were candidates for re-election.

W. E. A. McShea, of Arlington district was the only member of last year's board chosen to succeed himself. F. C. Handy, an attorney of Barcroft, was chosen to replace Dr. Munson. In Washington district R. Bruce Harrison, a contractor of Cherrydale, succeeds B. G. Foster, of Walker's Chapel; and J. L. Prosise succeeds George W. Zachary in Jefferson district.

According to the Alexandria County Monitor the electoral board, which name one of the three members of each of the three district school boards every summer, is composed of the commonwealth's attorney, the superintendent of schools, and a chairman named by the judge of the Circuit Court, in which capacity Fred Graham, of Arlington district, is now serving. For several years past Mr. Graham of Arlington district is now serving. For several years past Mr. Graham has remained discretly away from the annual meetings of the electoral board, leaving the choice of trustees to the two members who are identified with local affairs. This year, however, his vote was necessary to deeat Superintendent Hodges' desire that all three of the trustees whose terms expired be re-electd. He was on hand, voting solidly behind Captain Mackey.

The shakeup was the outgrowth of the "discovery" by the board of a supervisors this summer that the trustees had been paying their superintend $600 a year in addition to the $1.20 paid in by State and the board of supervisors. The supervisors claim to have not known that this extra $600 was being paid Hodges, and that the trustees by paying it violated an understanding they had with the supervisors that he was to get only $1,200 a year during the past four years.

Captain Mackey used the opposition to the superintendent and trustees that gre wout of this "discovery" to help him settle some political scores. George W. Zachary, in Jefferson district, sent a proxy to a meeting of the county democratic committee last fall, instead of attending in person. The proxy voted with the "ring" against Captain Mackey, and by that vote sealed Zachary's defeat for re-election as county school trustee.

When nominations to fill the vacancy in Jefferson district were called, Captain Mackey put un J. L. Prosise, and Superintendent Hodges nominated Zachary for re-election, supporting his choice with a petition bearing more than a hundred signatures. Prosise was elected by the votes of Captain Mackey and Graham.

New York.—District Attorney Charles S. Whitman announced that he would accept the fusion of anti-Tammany nomination for district attorney.

Costly Treatment.

"I was troubled with constipation and Indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Whitlow, Ark. "I went to a St. Louis hospital, also to a hospital in New Orleans, but no cure was affected. On returning home I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets, and worked right along. LITTLE GIRL ASSAULTED.

Child is Attacked by an Unknown White Man—Four Suspects Arrested.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Aug. 9.—Virginia Mingini, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bates Mingini, of the city, was asaulted shortly before noon Thursday by an unknown white man. The crime occurred in a field adjoining the south quarry of the Standard Lime and Stone Company within the city limits.

Within an hour after the crime was known four posses of officers under Sheriff Tabler, Deputy Sheriff Bartrals, Constable Wolf and Policeman Riddle were scouring every section of the country around Martinsburg, while the alarm was sent to all neighboring towns. Four suspects were arrested, one at Williamsport, one at Front Royal and two at Harpers Ferry. Two of the men arrested are now locked up here awaiting examination while officers are en route here with the others.

The officers are very reticent about their captures, as there is a big crowd about the police station, and it is believed that if the assailant of the child is identified he will be lynched. While the officers will give out no information, it is believed that the right man is under arrest, as one of the men answers exactly to the description of theman wanted.

The little girl and her 5-year-old brother were enticed to a lonely part of town from the main thoroughfare. The man told them he kept a store and would give them candy and oranges. When the field was reached the man separated the children and carried the girl into the bushes. Her screams frightened her little brother and he also screamed, attracting the attention of persons nearby. The man fled.

Three physicians were called to attend the little girl.

CHATHAM VOTES OUT SALOON.

Pittsylvania County Seat Goes "Dry" By Small Majority.

Danville, Va., Aug. 9.—The town of Chatham, county seat of Pittsylvania, yesterday voted against liquor license in a close and hotly contested fight. The vote was for license, 54 against 52. Three votes improperly marked were rejected. Only one firm was selling intoxicants in Chatham, the Portner Brewing Co., operating under a beer license. All sales of intoxicants will cease in ninety days.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

SULZER FACES IMPEACHMENT.

Broker Testifies Against Him Before Frawley Committee.

New York, Aug. 9.—Governor William Sulzer, of New York, was nearly $50,000 in debt as the result of stock market speculations at the time of his nomination, and used contributions to his campaign fund to make additional purchases of stock while this debt was hanging over him, according to testimony adduced yesterday at the hearings of the Frawley committee of the legislature.

The evidence brought to light is sufficient, according to Senator Frawley, chairman of the committee, to warrant proceeding to impeach the governor for violation of the corrupt practices act. The committee closed its hearings here today to consider what action should be taken. A decision is expected by Monday.

The Governor, according to the evidence, his dealing with thre different stock exchange firms and was saved him from being sold out by firm of L. M. Josepthal, a wall street banker, and a member of the Governor's staff as naval reserve aid. Josepthal(it was brought out, paid a debt balance of $26,739 still standing against the account on July 15. This was after the Governor had received repeated calls for more margin.

The governor's transactions with the other firms were for cash, and it was in connection with one of these that Governor Sulzer, accohding to the evidence, used campaign contributions. Arranged chronologically, the testimony appeared to show that on January 1, 1912, there stood on the books of the stock exchange frm of Harris & Fuller an indebtedness of $48,599 against the purchase by Governor Sulzer of 500 shares of "Big Four," 200 shares American Smelting and Refining Company and 100 shares of Southern Pacific. This testimony was given by Melville B. Fuller, a member of the firm, who on Wednesday had refused to answer the questions of the committee.

Malory's hearing before Justice Crutchfield, which had bene continued from a previous date, developed the facts that Mallory, is chairman of the trustees of the council, and has, in the performance of this office, received funds from the treasurer for deposit in bank. Peter Crews, treasurer, was called, and testified to handing over to Mallory in the presence of witnesses at ten or twelve separate times sums of money amounting to $75, $70, $100 and like amounts. Crews was shown vouchers for this money, and he identified the signature on the backs of them ans that of James A. Malloy, and said they were the vouchers which he kept for his protection as treasurer.

The treasurer stated that on one occasion Mallory received from him $200 to be deposited in the bank for the sick benefit fund of the order, and that the bank book showed an entry of half the sum. Going back of this, and making investigation, he estimated that about $1,000 had disappeared in the same way, which money he chargse Malloy with appropriating to his own use.

Mallory, before his arrest, had meen in the position of chairman of the trustees for some years at different times, and seemed to have the full confidence of his associates.

His counsel said that bail in the sum of $1,000 would be secured for him.
